Who we are...

Lund University Foundation (LUF)

Lund University Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3), organized and operating exclusively for charitable, scientific and educational purposes. LUF was established in 2010 in the United States, as an independent organization with a focus on supporting Lund University.

LUF's headquarters are in Los Angeles with board members located all over the U.S. and Sweden.

Lund University (LU)

Lund University was founded in 1666 and is ranked among the top 100 universities in the world. The University has 42 000 students and more than 7 500 researchers & staff based in Lund, Helsingborg and Malmö.

The University provides education and research in engineering, science, law, social sciences, economics and management, medicine, humanities, theology, fine art, music and drama. It is the number one choice in Sweden for international students.

What we do...

Alumni Network

Lund University Foundation's mission is to strengthen Lund University's ties with the United States and with alumni in the U.S.

The Foundation is expanding our alumni and friends network in the United States. We organize events to connect with Lund Alumni and build a Lund University community through social media. The Foundation's Board of Trustees is made up of alumni.

Raise Funds

Lund University Foundation raises funds to make grants available for specific projects at Lund University. It's an easy way for individuals, alumni, foundations and corporations to donate money to their favorite cause at Lund University.

By contributing funds to research, education and special projects you are supporting LU's vision to understand, explain and improve our world and the human condition.

Why LUF...

Research and Education

Donate to research and education at Lund University. Your commitment to Lund demonstrates caring at the highest level. Your gift can contribute to a scientific breakthrough or change the life of a young student. Together we can make a difference for a better world.

Tax-Deductible Donations
